

Lead.

Wald to Berlin

Handwritten musical score for 'Wald to Berlin'. The score is written on ten staves. The first staff is the title line. The second staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a time signature of 3/8. The music is written in a cursive, handwritten style. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and bar lines. There are some markings like '8x' and '7.' in the score. The score ends with a double bar line and repeat signs on the final staff.

H 16 46

F

Waltz

Pelchowski

Martha

OCT 14 1918

©JE433057

" THE ROAD TO BERLIN'S GETTING SHORTER "

WORDS BY
EDDIE CANTOR

MUSIC BY LEON FLATOW.

Mister Thomas wrote a note to his boy in France
Said now don't you let your daddy worry son, so hairy son
And drop a line to let me know just what's doing lad
Thomas Junior quickly sent this letter to his dad.

CHORUS.

Oh the road to Berlin's getting shorter
And you can bet, we'll soon be there
We will tramp tramp tramp across the border
And give old Fritz his share
When you hear us yell - Come in the water's fine
You'll know we're bathing in the River Rhine
Oh the road to Berlin's getting shorter
And you can bet we'll soon be there.

CHORUS LINES

The crown prince and his army both have flown
We're so near Berlin we can smell Cologne.