VOICE

Oh, Sam - mie boy, Our pride and joy, You've an-swered ev-ery call. You You sailed a-way most ev - ery day And arrived in dear old France. You stepped in line, with your gun a - shine, To make Free - dom for us all. You've marched straight up and then shout - ed out, Please just give us half a chance. You borne our flag, which ner could sag, with - out hes - i - ta - tion. And you have fought right on till at Sedan's doors, and went right straight on thru them. And now dear won for us and all the world, The free - dom of all na - tions.

boys with joys we greet you back, Our he - roes all true blue - men.

CHORUS
O what say you a - bout our lit-tle Sam - mies, who made our Arm - ies, just what they are?
The hus - ky boys, they felt the joys of stop-ping Kai - ser Bill, They filled the world with joy and free-dom with their work and skill. And when you come back home with flags of Vic - t'ry You'll write a his - t'ry, that's there to stay. You've got a lot of pep and ac-tion to be thank-ful for It was born in dear old U. S. A.
