JAN 21 1918
©CLE418457

Salut a la Belle France, Hats off to Noble France!

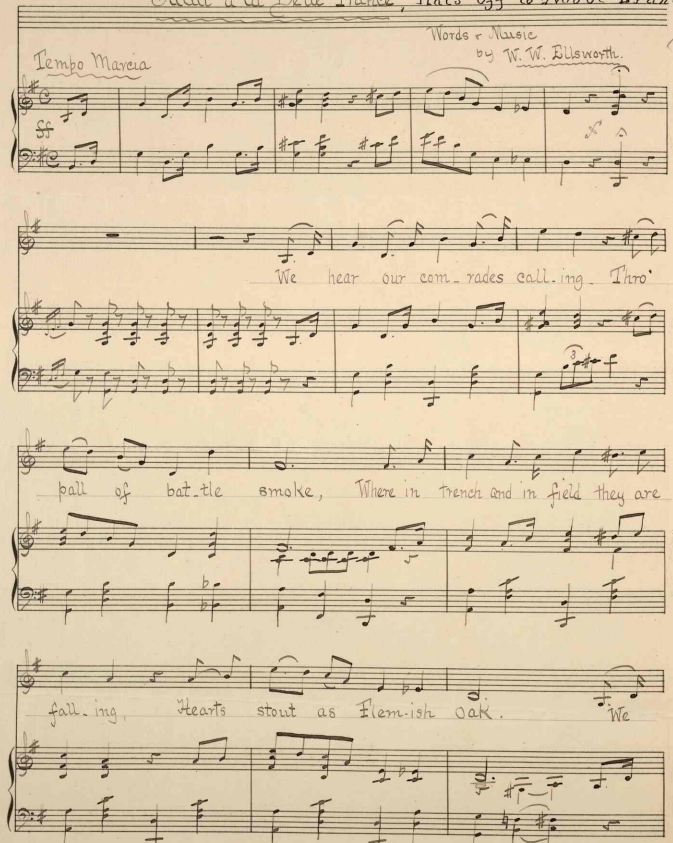
Words and Music
by
W. W. Ellsworth -

No.9
M1646
.E

Salut a la Belle France, Hats off to Noble France!

Words & Music
by W. W. Ellsworth.

Tempo Marcia



No. 9

Copyright 1918 by W. W. Ellsworth, 144 Decatur St.,
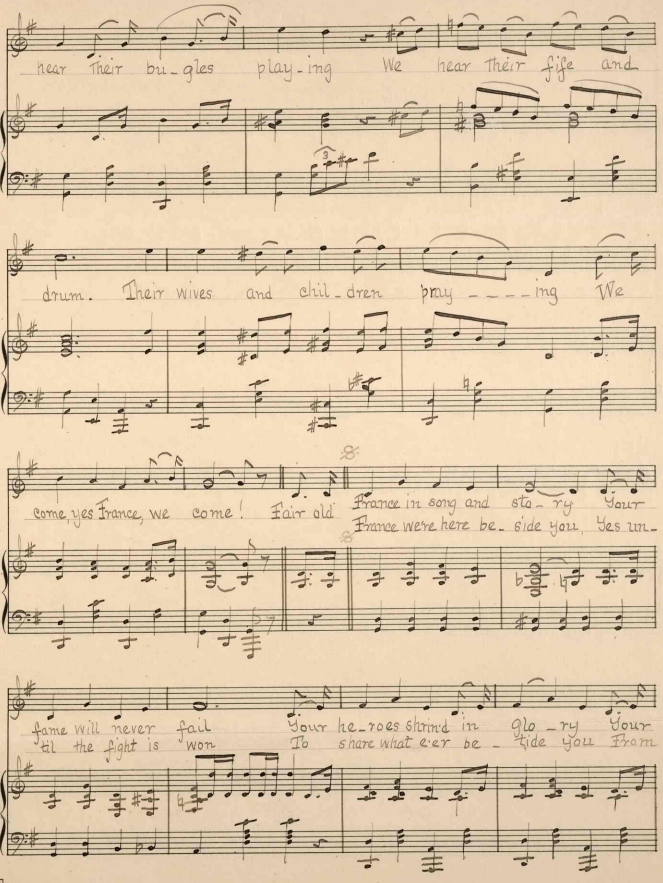
Brooklyn, N. Y.



near Their bu-gles play-ing We hear Their fife and drum. Their wives and chil-dren pray ---ing We come, yes France, we come! Fair old France in song and sto-ry Your France were here be-side you, Yes un-fame will never fail Your he-roes shrine in glo-ry Your til the fight is won To share what e-er be-tide you From might must still pre-vail Yet for all that life holds dear-est At bleed-ing sire and son To brave the Teu-tons mal-ice To sa-cred debt we pay- In trou-ble you were -ring the Kai-sers knell- To drink from Rights pure near---est We fight for you brave France to-day------- chal---ice With Cof-fre and the brave Ni-relle-------- Fine

& lower
We're want-ed on the fight-ing line Our Coun-try calls us there No shirkers, slackers, slinkers not a sign. We're off to do our bit and share The deeds of those who dare. And hurt the Boche 'cross the German Rhine Yes brave D. S. al Fine.

4235 0