

©G.E. 119444

In Pittsburgh To-night

Words by

EDNA PEARL HOMME

Music by

LEO FRIEDMAN

NORTH AMERICAN
MUSIC PUBLISHING Co.
119 No. Clark St., Chicago, Ill.

11944
F

11944

In Pittsburgh Tonight

Words by
EDNA PEARL HOMME

Music by
LEO FRIEDMAN

Marcia Modto

f

A - mong the large crowd of soldier boys Way ov - er in France, —
Al - tho' he's far a-way he'll come back And I'll wait for him, —

Where they are fighting to - day Is a sol - dier boy there, —
Yes I'll al - ways wait for him, For he's a fight - er brave, —

He's the one I love the best, We're far a - part to - day, — But in my
And I love to think of him In his 'u - ni - form gay, — But he loves dreams I stay near him on the shore, To fight for the U. S. A.

 his home as well as he loves me, And we both love U. S. A.

CHORUS

Oh the moon shines bright on Pittsburgh to-night While the soft pa-cif-ic breezes blow,

On the bay to - night the lights shine bright And the night-in - gale sings low,

My tho'ts are staying where the guns are swaying, As the sun sinks ov-er the hills to rest, In the far off, far off France.

