It's the American Beauty For Me

Words by Miss ROSEBUD ALMAND

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

The musical score is arranged in a piano-vocal format. It features a piano accompaniment with treble and bass staves, and a vocal line with a treble staff. The key signature has one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 3/4. The piano part includes dynamic markings such as 'f' (forte) and 'p' (piano). The vocal line includes lyrics with hyphens indicating syllables across notes. The score is divided into several systems, each with piano and vocal staves. The lyrics are: 'Now Yan - kee Doo - dle was so brave, He went to fight for his coun - try; At Par - is there the day he saved, Made Huns run at Cha - teau Thier - ry; When not in strife led a gay life, But for girls back home he yearned; He's glad we're done, the vic - try's won, He's glad he has re - turned.'

CHORUS

He talked with the girls of Eng - land, He kissed the girls of France, He walked with the girls of Bel - gium, With I - tal - ian maids he danced; But in Novem - ber when the war was passed, And the Cap - tain said, "Which shall it be?" The cry came from one, the cry came from all, "It's the A - mer - i - can beau - ty for me!"

Good-bye Mother! So Long Dadi Hello Uncle Sam

Words by W. E. BROWNING
 Music by C. A. GILMAN

Good-bye Mother, be long Dadi, But in the arms of the one I love, I'll be glad to see you. I'll be glad to see you, I'll be glad to see you, I'll be glad to see you.

Give up all arms, Who longed for a day your own dear one. O my dear, I'll be glad to see you, I'll be glad to see you, I'll be glad to see you, I'll be glad to see you.

A National hit. Sung everywhere. Over 200,000 copies already sold. Undoubtedly the best war song published. Sentimental and patriotic. Easy to play and sing. 'Nough said.
