The Stars In Your Window

Words by GUS B. BRINKMAN

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

Has the flag in your win - dow you proud - ly dis - play, have the
 If a star in your flag changed from blue in - to gold, Has that stars an - y mean - ing to you? Do they tell that some dear ones have star - an - y mean - ing to you? Does it tell that your dear one so gone far a - way In de - fense of the Red, White and Blue?

 loy - al and bold Gave his all for his coun - try and you?

Do they mean ba - by's daddy was the first to be read - y Or a moth - er her boy gave so
 Has a heart of real glad - ness now become one of sad - ness And it made you feel lone - ly and true Or a sis - ter her broth - er, that blue? But the heart torn by sor - row, will sweet hearts miss each oth - er, Have the stars an - y mean - ing to you?

 gain strength to - mor - row, Have the stars an - y mean - ing to you?

REFRAIN

Each star in your window has a mean - ing to you, Each one is a sym - bol that a loy - al heart so true Has gone forth in de - fense of the Red, White and Blue,

Each star in your win - dow means the world to you.
