CHORUS
Mon-day's the day that we eat no wheat, No bread, cake or pas-try nor ver-y much sweet, p–f
Tues-day re-mem-ber we must con-serve meat, That our sol-diers may live the Kais-er to beat;
Wednesday a-gain we must eat no bread, But of Thursday and Friday there's not much said, Sat-ur-day, Yes our pork we must share With the boys who are fighting with vim o-ver there, One wheatless, one meat-less meal each day, I know that the na-tion will Hoover o-bey.
