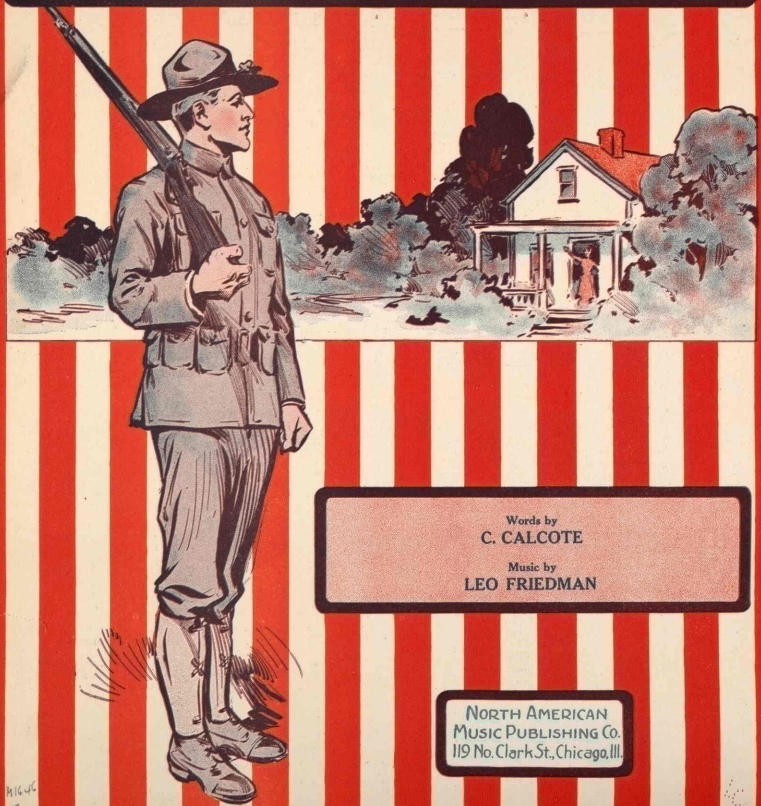
©CLE 417387
FEB 23 1918

Uncle Sam Has Called His Boys



Words by
C. CALCOTE

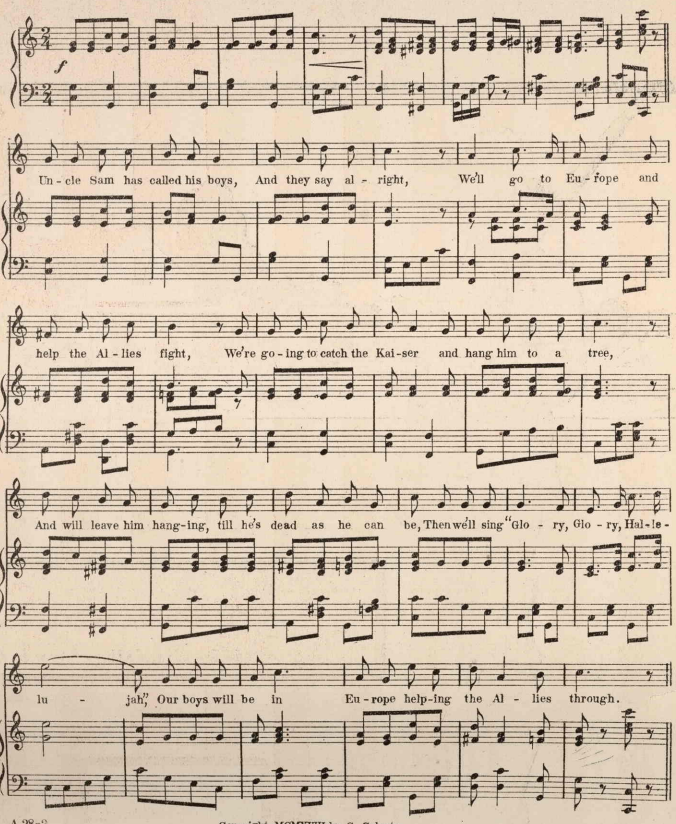
Music by
LEO FRIEDMAN

NORTH AMERICAN
MUSIC PUBLISHING CO.
119 No. Clark St., Chicago, Ill.

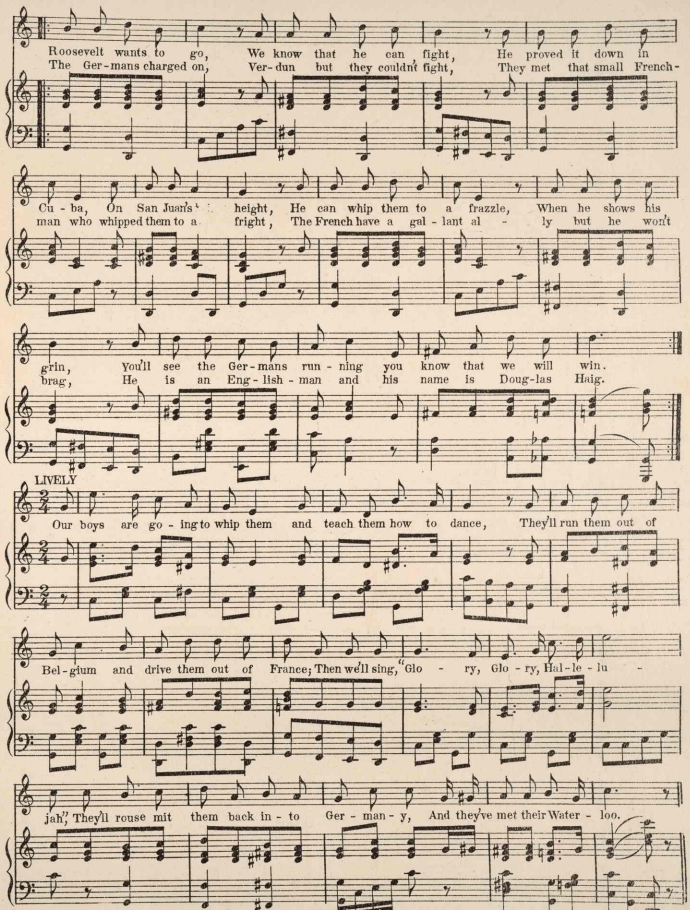
Uncle Sam Has Called His Boys

Words by
C. CALCOTE

Music by
LEO FRIEDMAN



Copyright MCMXVIII by C. Calcote



Roosevelt wants to go, We know that he can fight, He proved it down in
The Ger-mans charged on, Ver-dun but they couldn't fight, They met that small French-Cu-ba, On San Juan's height, He can whip them to a frazzle, When he shows his man who whipped them to a fright, The French have a gal-lant al-ly but he won't grin, You'll see the Ger-mans run-ning you know that we will win.
brag, He is an Eng-lish-man and his name is Doug-las Haig.
LIVELY
Our boys are go-ing to whip them and teach them how to dance, They'll run them out of Bel-gium and drive them out of France; Then we'll sing, "Glo-ry, Glo-ry, Hal-le-lu-jah," They'll rouse mit them back in-to Ger-man-y, And they've met their Water-loo.

A 28-2

426375