

APR 28 1919

Under the Skies of France

NORTH AMERICAN MUSIC COMPANY

119 N. CLARK ST. CHICAGO

Words by ELSIE M. STEVENS
Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

Under the Skies of France

Words by ELSIE M. STEVENS

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

Where the Stars and Stripes of our own dear land And the bars of France are
And we who are left in our dear home-land For the he - roes must not - wav - ing, Our he - roes fight for truth and right, The world for free - doom sor - row, Send them a - long with smile and song, For they'll re turn to - sav - ing, And while they fight for their home - land mor - row And we can help in a thous - and fair, Our tho'ts and pray'rs are o - ver there.
ways. With time and mon - cy, meat - less days.

CHORUS

Un - der the skies of France Un - der the Red, White and Blue, Our he roes stand for their dear home - land, For all that is right and true; With song and shout they en - ter, -
 The thick - est of the fray, And there's not a show for the hun - gry foe, For they're up against the U. S. A.

