INTRO.

Our Pres - i - dents have all been great We've had none great - er than our last With -
We have a man for ev' - ry need Up - on the land and on the sea; May Our Al - lies long have borne the brunt Of all the Hun's re - venge - ful hate But in his heart's no room for hate He prays that war will soon be past. So God a - bove our tri - umphs speed And ev' - ry man a Persh - ing be. A now we march - ing to the front Re - joic - ing we are not too late. A - let us in this fear - ful strife, Up - hold his hands by word and deed; And Bon - a - parte to France goes forth, A Well - ing - ton to Bri - tain true; A mer - i - ca, be - lov - ed land We owe our homes and lives to thee; So help him guard our na - tion's life In this our hour of ut - most need.

 Gar - i - bal - di to the South, An Al - bert for brave Bel - gium too.
 'neath "Old Glo - ry" we will stand, And fight or die for lib - er - ty.

CHORUS

Let's go! hur-rah, let's go — No mat - ter when or where. We'll fight the Hun up - on the land, Up - on the sea and in the air. Let's go — we're on, let's go! Our met - tle now let's show; We're rar - iu' and tear - in' to tac - kle the foe, Let's go hur - rah let's go!
