

MAY -8 1918 ©DE 23650

WE CAN'T FORGET OLD GLORY

Words by
MISS OLGA MAROHN

Music by
LEO FRIEDMAN

NORTH AMERICAN
MUSIC PUBLISHING CO.
119 No. Clark St. Chicago, Ill.

jus - tice un - to all on earth, Where ev - 'ry sin - gle man is wor - thy dig - na - tion crossed o'er the sea In hu - man - i - ty's name and the broth - of his hire And the for - eign broth - er finds his life de - sire.

 er - hood plea Be - cause we nev - er could for - get Old Glo - ry.

CHORUS

Oh! we can't for - get Old Glo - ry, Say, we can't for - get Old Glo - ry The p-f

stars and bars, the red, the white, the blue, Be - loved of la - bor man and rich man too The land of sweet - est name It plays the "square deal" game, No, we can't for - get Old Glo - ry.

