

FEB -7 1920

FEB -7 1920

© ClE 471191 R

WE WERE MORE LONELY FOR YOU

WORDS BY JOHN POZDRO

MUSIC BY
LEO FRIEDMAN

NORTH AMERICAN MUSIC COMPANY
Grand Opera House
CHICAGO

M1646
F

We Were More Lonely For You

Words by JOHN POZDRO

Music by
LEO FRIEDMAN

The piano introduction consists of two staves of music in 2/4 time. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving bass lines.

O-ver in France, taking a chance, A soldier was thinking of home,

The first line of the song features a vocal melody in the upper staff and piano accompaniment in the lower staff. The lyrics are: "O-ver in France, taking a chance, A soldier was thinking of home,"

His bit was done with mishap to some, Far a-way o'er the oceans

The second line of the song continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "His bit was done with mishap to some, Far a-way o'er the oceans" foam, Then came a call for one and for all To pack up their

The third line of the song continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "foam, Then came a call for one and for all To pack up their"

grips for home, When they got here, we greeted with cheer, And

The fourth line of the song concludes the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "grips for home, When they got here, we greeted with cheer, And"

CHORUS

these were the words we sung. — You were lonely for home, sweet home, —

Your hearts were loyal and true, — You fought with your might, for freedom and right, And for the old Red, White and Blue; — Now that you've come back to stay, — You're welcome as the flow'rs in May, — Each day of the year since you left the pier, — We were more lonely for you. —

