ease and com - fort, When old age lays down the tools of strife. So thing he likes to do the best, Tis smoke an old du - deen. But while we reap and while we sow, Re - mem - ber ma - ny years a - go, Our Pat's a jol - ly soul in life, He smiles at eve - ry phase of strife, And an - ces - tors did work and toil, To get us this dear soil. So nev - er lets old na - ture's whim, Put one ov - er on him. So let us try and hap-py be, To think that we are here and free. No keep on smil-ing Pat-rick dear, And seek your for-tune ov-er here. But ad lib (spoken) toil in vain, for all is gain. This is the life for me. as to trou-ble tis quite true, I will nev-er trou-ble you.
