

OCT -2 1918 ✓

DE 431554 R

BRAVE ARE THE BOYS THAT'S GONE

Words by PERRY L. PERKINS

Music by
LEO FRIEDMAN

M1646

.F

NORTH AMERICAN
MUSIC PUBLISHING CO.
119 No. Clark St., Chicago, Ill.

Brave are the Boys that's gone

Words by PERRY L. PERKINS

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

March tempo

O - ver the seas our boys have gone To France with its bat-tles and strife, _____ To Out on the field of des-truc-tion So strewn with hav-ocs of war, _____ By Fight-ing our na-tions bat-tles now Mid the noise of the shot and shell, _____ We fight with a might for a cause that is just And may-be to give up their life _____ The night and by day they will watch for the foe And show them what were fight-ing for _____ Tri-know our boys then will all stand by the flag And vic-try shall ev-er be ours _____ For heartaches at part-ing but we love them more We send them all forth to fight _____ May col-ors bound closely with those of the brave Go forth with them heart and hand _____ No our na-tions hon-or they'll car-ry the flag Till war shall end and it's saved _____ Our

Copyright 1918 by Perry L. Perkins

triumph be theirs and Li-ber-ty ours As they go forth now for the right. _____
 foe on this earth can al-ter their stand Or con-quer our dear no-ble Band. _____
 banner in tri-umph long may it wave O'er the land of the free and brave. _____

CHO.

Brave are the boys that's gone _____ Gone at their coun-try's call, _____

Brave hearts will hon-or the flag _____ Our fa-thers be-fore us bore. _____

Hail to the brave and true _____ Gone at their coun-try's call _____ They all must fight for the right All, all of them great and small. _____

441746