When the dear gallant soldiers are go - ing from here, Send them off with a smile and a rou - sing good cheer, It will
It is hard for the dear gallant soldiers to part With the wo - men all weeping and break - ing their hearts, They would So cheer up my dear sis - ter put on a brave front, And re - mem - ber the soldiers are bearing the hurt, They are glad - den their hearts to remem - ber the smile, On the fa - ces of friends, they can't see for a - while.

rath - er the sound of the guns in their ears, Than re - mem - ber the face of some ma - den in tears.
go - ing from here for per - haps a long while, So then brace up your cour - age and give them a smile.

CHORUS

When the boys are marching to camp,— And we watch them all marching bye,—— We should cheer them along with a laugh and a song in - stead of a tear in our eye, —— - So encour - age the boys who have an - swerd the call, And give them a send off what ev - er befall, And re - member to write when they get o-ver there, And to ask God to help those in France somewhere, When the France somewhere
