

NOV. 23 1918

©CLE 498108

The Farm Song

Words by

G. BROWN

Music by

LEO FRIEDMAN

NORTH AMERICAN MUSIC PUBLISHING Co.
119 No. Clark St., Chicago, Ill.

71646
F

The Farm Song

Words by G. BROWN

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

Moderato

If you can - not be a sol - dier for some rea - son or an - oth - er, You can
You may know not all a - bout it but do not get dis - cour - aged yet, Help the
You are need - ed by the farm - er in the field and in the barn - yard, You can help in man - y ways to pro - vide food for your broth - er, Who has farm - er and his wife and just that will be your bit, You can run be - hind the bind - er pick up bun - dles with - out harm, Gath - er gone a - cross the sea, and will fight for you and me, And eas - y guide a plow al - so learn to milk a cow, And grain out in the sun help that much to lick the Hun, And So

Copyright, MCMIVIII, by G. Brown

risk his life a - mid the strife all for his own coun - try.
 feed the pigs and chick - ens too, so go right out there now.
 do your bit and make a hit, as Un - cle Sam - mys son.

CHORUS

On the farm, farm, farm you are want - ed on the farm, If you want to help your coun - try, you can do so on the farm, On the farm, farm, farm you are safe from ev - 'ry harm, And you'll help your sol - dier broth - er if you work hard on the farm.

