CHORUS
We've left our work-shop, farm and home, Like-wise our dear-est gal-lies, O'er Eu-rope's blood-y field to roam, A-fight-ing with the Al-lies, We'll meet the grand Cana-dian bunch, And hear the Tom-mies hol-ler, We'll win the fight we've got a hunch, We'll wear no Jun-ker col-lar. Bel-shaz-zar Bill can see the hand That's writ-ing on the plas-ter, His sub-ma-rines wont run on land, Here-in lies his dis-as-ter.
