Fleeting Home To You

Words by ROBERT YOUNG

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

The musical score is written in a 4/4 time signature with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part features a steady bass line in the left hand and chords in the right hand. The vocal line is in a soprano range and includes the following lyrics:

I am sit - ting and I'm think - ing of my home so far a - way And my
I have kept my great love for you, thru the long and wear - y year And I've pret - ty lit - tle sweet heart long - ing for me day by day, When the oft been sad and lone - ly but one thing has brought me cheer, For I lights at eve are fad - ing, her sweet face comes to view;
knew at home you're wait - ing, with heart so fond and true;

Do not grieve, my lit-tle dar-ling, I'll be fleet-ing home to you.—
 So be cheer-y lit-tle dar-ling I'll be fleet-ing home to you.—

Chorus

When the birds in the trees are a sing-ing,— In the spring-time of the year,— When the flow-ers are sweet-ly bloom-ing— I'll be back with you, my deary— And togeth-er we both will wan-der— Thru the fields so fresh and green,— I will deck your brow with flow-ers, my own sweet lit-tle wood-land queen.—
