

DEC 16 1918

He Rode Away on the Old Choo-Choo

©GE438872

Words by LUCY BATES
Music by
LEO FRIEDMAN

NORTH AMERICAN MUSIC COMPANY
GRAND OPERA HOUSE BLDG.
CHICAGO

HE RODE AWAY ON THE OLD CHOO-CHOO

Words by LUCY BATES

Musie by LEO FRIEDMAN

Moderato

Once I had a sweetheart, And I loved him too, But al - so one day he rode a - way, To Now I sit so lone - ly, As I think of him, But he has his guns to fight the huns, Put fight for the Red, White and Blue, There were tears in his dear eyes, When he said his last goodbye, And Kai - ser William in the swim, I'll keep the home fires burning, For he'll soon be re - turning, A - board the old choo-choo and rode a - way. Oh tell me please, gain on the old choo-choo — rid - ing home.

CHORUS

tell me, And tell me, tell me true, — Oh tell me please, tell me what would you ev - er do, — If your true love left on the old choo - choo, And rode a - way for the Red, White and Blue.

