

'NEATH THE OLD RED, WHITE AND BLUE

WRITTEN FOR

THE MOTHERS OF AMERICA

—AND—

DEDICATED

—TO THE—

American Red Cross

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

ETHELYN GLASSER

PATRIOT PUBLISHING CO.,
632 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

—OR—

BAXTER COUNTY CHAPTER RED CROSS, MOUNTAIN HOME, ARK.

OUR HYMN FOR NATIONAL DEFENSE

'NEATH THE OLD RED WHITE AND BLUE

Written For The Mothers Of America
and
Dedicated To The American Red Cross
To which profits of all sales are devoted.

Words and Music by
ETHELYN GLASSER
Secretary Baxter County Chapter Red Cross, Mountain Home, Arkansas.

Prelude

My boy has gone to this sad old war, This war for Lib - er - ty, Will the folks at home close be-There's been carnage done in the name of God, By men who are drunk with power, We must wipe the stain from the
We must give our time, we must give our toll, Must give our wealth, our "mite"; We must give our hearts, we must side him stand The folks like you and me? He will hon - or the land where free-men stand, For his world's fair name This is free-dom's mar - tyr hour. Then shame on shame to the worth-less name Of the give our prayers For the no - ble boys who fight. Then cheer on cheer till the Heav-ens hear, For the heart is brave and true, He has gone to fight for the cause of Right, 'Neath the Old Red, White and Blue.

 man who grabs for gold, Who would coin his gain from the nation's pain, Tho' our boys lie dead and cold.
 Old Red, White and Blue, We will do our part with a loy-al heart, To God and Right be true.

CHORUS

With Spirit but not fast

Hur - rah, Hur - rah for the grand old flag, The brave old flag so true. Hur - rah, Hur - rah for the boys who fight 'Neath the Old Red, White and Blue.

f 8..... loco. 8..... 8.....

