

When The Allies Parade The Streets Of Berlin

WORDS AND MUSIC BY
Z.F. GORBETT
THE WRITER OF —
"WHERE DID CATHERINE WINTERS GO?"

PUBLISHED BY GORBETT BROS.
NEW CASTLE, IND.

H1646

G

When The Allies Parade The Streets Of Berlin

Tempo di Marcia

Piano introduction in 2/4 time, key of B-flat major. The music features a steady march rhythm with chords in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.

VOICE

Kai - ser slaugh-tered lit-tle Bel - gium, gosh! he must of had his nerve, — He There's a reck-ning day now com - ing, — for ye Kai-ser of Ber - lin, — When Vocal line and piano accompaniment for the first verse. The piano part provides harmonic support with chords and a bass line.

thought in Par-is, France he would a Ger - man feast there serve. — Three Bel - gium's blood has been a - venged, there'll be no Kai - ser then — His Vocal line and piano accompaniment for the second verse. The piano part continues with harmonic support.

years of fight-ing for his goal, ten thou - sand homes be - ref, — But days are num-bered here on earth, if plain truth we must tell, — He Vocal line and piano accompaniment for the third verse. The piano part concludes the piece with a final chord.

who holds Par - is France to - day, say, Kai - ser, did you ev - er get left? — is not fit for Heav'n a - bove, the dev - il would not have him in, well. —

CHORUS

Stand back, Kai - ser, Al - lied shells are screaming, Your men are fall - ing, your homes are be - reft, Stand back, Kai - ser, The Sammies are com - ing, Say, old guy, did you ev - er get left? And the Star - span - gled Ban - ner — in tri - umph — shall wave, — E - qual rights for all and tyr - an - ny's end, When the Allies pa - rade the streets of Ber - lin. Ber - lin.

