MAR 19 1918 ©CLE417792

PROFESSIONAL COPY. This copy must not be sold. Any person offering it for sale is liable to punishment according to the Law.

The Mothers Hall Of Fame.

Words by ADDISON BURKHARDT.

Music by JOHN T. HALL.

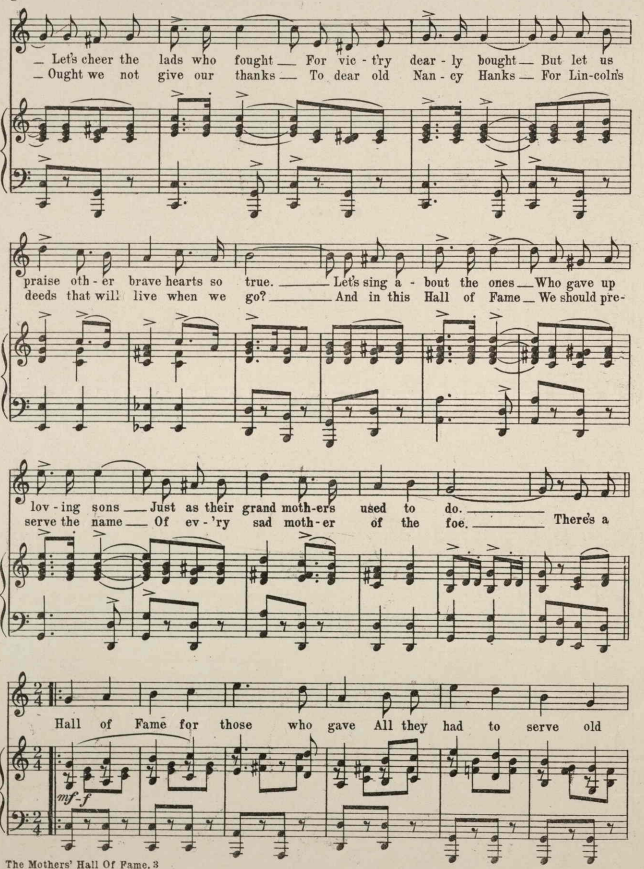
Copyright MCMXVIII by Bizet Music Pub. Co. N. Y.

M1646
.H



Let's cheer the lads who fought For vic - t'ry dear - ly bought But let us Ought we not give our thanks To dear old Nan - cy Hanks For Lin-coln's praise oth - er brave hearts so true. Let's sing a - bout the ones Who gave up deeds that will live when we go? And in this Hall of Fame We should pre-lov - ing sons Just as their grand moth-ers used to do.
serve the name Of ev - 'ry sad moth - er of the foe. There's a Hall of Fame for those who gave All they had to serve old mf - f

glo - ry; For they've sac - ri - ficed their sons to save Freedom's fair un - tar - nished name. There's a Bar-b'ra Fritch - ie in each home, To give all has been her aim. Tramp, tramp, tramp the boys are 1
2
march - ing To their Moth - ers' Hall of Fame. There's a Fame.
f
D. C.

425549