

JUN 25 1917

The Boys in Blue, in Khaki Too.

Words by Capt. L. Y. Lenhart.
Solo or quartet, ad lib.

Music by Inez Clark-Hall.

1. We're
2. And

with you lads a - cross the sea, Oh can't you hear us shout..... what is bet - ter still by jing Our Sam - my's got the boodle.....

It's up to us from yan - kee land, To kick the Kai - ser out. You To teach the Kai - ser how to sing The tune of Yan - kee Doodle. But French - y chaps and Eng - lish too; Have done your lit - tle bit. But what's the use of sling - ing lip, We aint got much to say. 'Tis

Un - cle Sam - my's got the stuff To make the ty - rant git..... quite e - nough for you to know We live in U. S. A.....

* The small notes are for the piano, ad lib.

Copyright, 1917, by Lenhart & Hall.

QUARTETTE

The boys in blue are on the sea, The kha - ki on the land.....

Between the two on dress pa - rade, You bet 'tis some-thing grand.

But when the can - non flash - es fire, You'll see a grand - er sight, (For)

The boys in blue and kha - ki too Can show you how to fight.....

We're not in - clined to brag..... 'Tis plain - ly seen your sub - ma - rine has struck a yan - kee snag.....

413768