

©CLE424060
APR -8 1918

FIELD EDITION

Camping on the Rhine

To My Friend

LIEUTENANT EDWIN B. LAWYER

As typifying the splendid young manhood of the United States of America, in their ready response to the call for the liberty of the world.

Words and Music by
JOHN C. HAMM

Field Edition .10
Home Edition .25
All Rights Reserved

Published by the Author
828 Central Building
Los Angeles, Cal.

191646
.H

Camping On The Rhine.

Words and music by
JOHN C. HAMM.

March time.

1. In the heart of martyred France, where the Hun - ish de - mons dance, And the
2. We are dig - ging ev - 'ry day in the same old go - pher way, While we
3. We will drive the Kai - ser out in an ut - ter Teu - ton rout, And we'll
4. So when fac - ing shot and shell in this Ger - man Kul - tur hell While the earth is scarred with	all their hell - ish	pranks,	We are hear the Bo - che	min - ne scream	on high;	But we rid both France and	Bel - gium of the	foe;	Then we'll folks at home are	help - ing with their	might,	We will here to do our bit and keep Free-dom's fi-res lit, And we'll nev-er turn our backs to the beast-ly Hun-ish packs, And we'll show the Ger-man folks that the Sam-mies are no blokes, And we'll free the world at last from that mil-i-ta-ry caste— And we'll camp a-long the Rhine-land riv-er banks.

camp with-in the Rhine-land by and camp with-in the Rhine-land as we go.
camp a-long the Rhine this sum-mer night.

CHORUS.

On the Rhine, _____ the riv-er Rhine, _____ In the Camping on the Rhine.

