

MAY 29 1918

WHEN AMERICA CROSSES THE RHINE

WORDS & MUSIC
By JOHN E. HAYS

PUBLISHED BY JOHN E. HAYS
SAC CITY, IOWA

When America Crosses The Rhine

JOHN E. HAYS

Piano introduction in 4/4 time, key of B-flat major. The melody is in the right hand, and the accompaniment is in the left hand.

Oh will you lis - ten to the sol - diers of A - mer - i - ca: We're Oh the boys are in the trenches on the oth - er side, And they're Musical notation for the first vocal line, including a piano accompaniment.

com - ing ve - ry soon a mill - ion strong: And we will going to keep Old Glo - ry wav - ing high: For we're Musical notation for the second vocal line, including a piano accompaniment.

give the fa - tal blow to old Au - toc - ra - cy; And put the foes of right where they be - bound to whip the Kai - ser and we'll get his - hide And hang it on a lin - den tree to Musical notation for the third vocal line, including a piano accompaniment.

long: We're fight - ing for the Free - dom of Hu - man - i - ty, We dry: We will smash the line of Hin - den - burg and get him, too, Well

Musical notation for the fourth vocal line, including a piano accompaniment.

see the dawn-ing of a bright-er day: The shack-les now are fall - ing, Joan-make a way for peace on land and sea: To Ber - lin we are go - ing, Our — of Arc is call - ing, Were com - ing with a won - der - ful ar - ray. — cause is ev - er grow - ing, We're march - ing heath the Ban - ner of the Free. —

CHORUS

For with old Eng - land, France and A - mer - i - ca, too, There'll be a long, long line a - long the Red, White and Blue And then twill be high time for old

Bill to "Skid-doo" When A - mer - i - ca cross - es the Rhine. Rhine.

