

MAR 13 1919

Allied Liberty World Song

By

H1636
4

J. MOORE HARDY

PUBLISHED BY
Delmar Music Co.
CHICAGO

Allied Liberty World Song

J. MOORE HARDY

With Spirit

We have joined the fight for free - dom. All hail the triumph of the Boys, keep up your cour - age You are fight - ing for the night. We have cour - age while we fight, At the end of the carn - age we right, For when you have gained the con - flict, You have con - quered Teuton might, So will re - joice, for then ev - er - y - thing will be bright. So keep on fighting, boys, for you will soon recognize their plight. The keep on fight - ing boys and have courage in your might, For the day is com - ing, boys, when Teuton vic - tims of Teu - ton orgies will then re - joice, For at the end of your vic - to - rious march the might will come tumbling down, For then the world will re-cog-nize their plight. You will Teu-ton will have to ac-cept the vic-tor's choice, For then the per-pe-tra-tor of then be re-ceived ev-ry-where in pub-lic plac-es with-out a frown.

 Teuton orgies will be then in St. Hel-ena's cages; Boys, your record will rebound thro' the ages.

CHORUS.

Keep up the fight, boys, for you will be win-ning for the right, For then all mankind will re-cog-
mf

nize what you have done, Your val-or-ous deeds done, "Our Sons!" The song of our sons will be sung till Life's sunset, And will keep on down the a-ges un-til Time's set-ting sun.

rit a tempo

454326