JUL 23 1918 ©CLE428841

MAY HARTMANN

THE LAST CALL

60 cents net

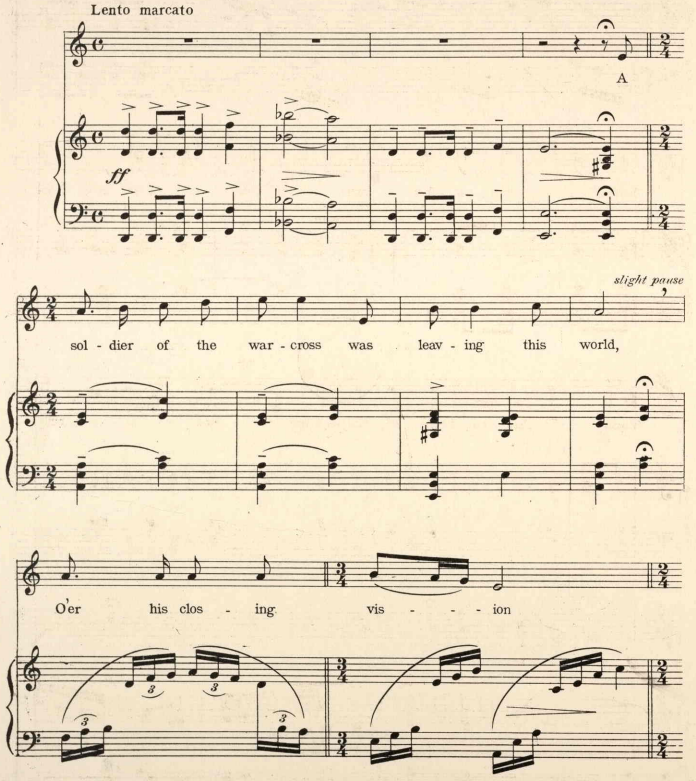
HUNTZINGER & DILWORTH
NEW YORK

M1646
.H

Dedicated to all Mothers

THE LAST CALL

MAY HARTMANN



Copyright 1918 by Huntzinger & Dilworth
International Copyright

Scenes of his life were told. He l.h.
looked in the eyes of his moth - er, He felt her ten - der touch, And the heart of him throbbed in lone - li - ness, This sol - dier of the war - cross.

Più mosso - marcato
Out of the fire and car - - - nage, trem.
Ped.
Out of the deep of the night, A voice said to him I gave my son,
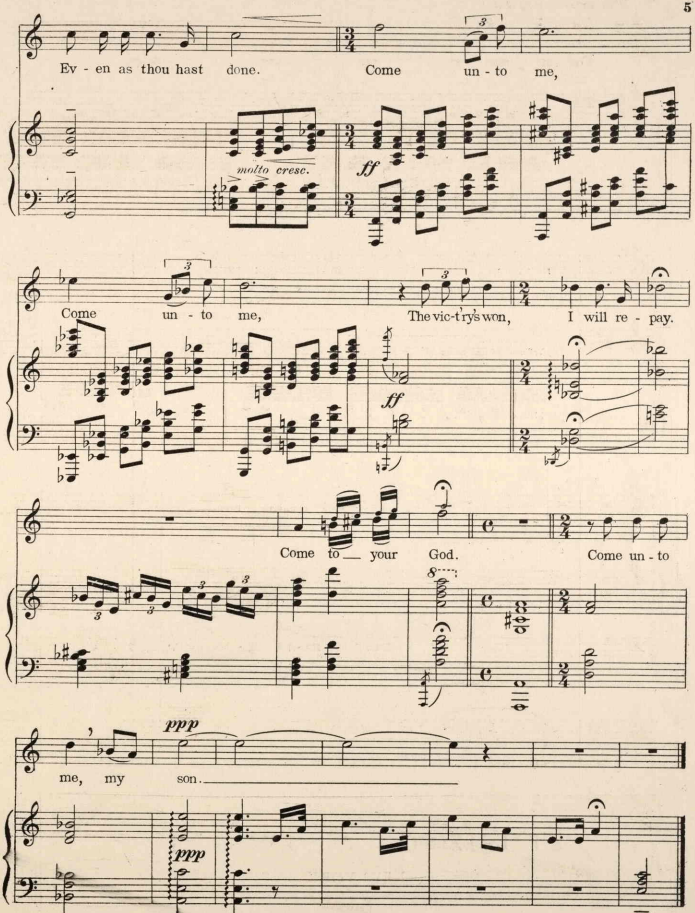
As thy moth - er hath done. He died to save man - kind,



Ev - en as thou hast done.
Come un - to me,
molto cresc.
ff
Come un - to me,
The vic-t'ry's won,
I will re - pay.
ff
Come to your God.
Come un - to 8
ppp me, my son.
ppp

435911

A SUCCESSFUL SONG

THE VOW

BY

RALPH GROSVENOR

To George M. Hurd 2nd 165th Infantry U.S.A. and The Four Minute Song Men of America

THE VOW

HIGH VOICE LOW VOICE

Words and Music by RALPH L. GROSVENOR

652-4

Copyright 1918 by Huntzinger and Dilworth
International Copyright Secured

60 Cents Net

HUNTZINGER & DILWORTH

NEW YORK