On To The War.

A Martial Anthem.

Words by William D. Foley

Music by Mario Hediger

M1646

Nr. 3.—Carl Fischer, New York.

ON TO THE WAR.

1.

On to the war, on to the war! America decrees
That we shall still maintain our flag upon the open seas.
March to the war with fearless pace;- march onward to the van!
No despot's dare shall ever scare the true American.
March on! March onward to the van!

2.

On to the war, on to the war! God and our right appeal
To halt the Kaiser's bloodlust: they are but slaves who kneel.
March to the war with valiant tread, Americans to the fore!
No craven soul shall e'er control the men who guard our shore.
March on! Americans to the fore!

3.

On to the war, on to the war! All patriots to the van!
Our flag demands each trusty blade, each brave American.
March to the war with loyal tread, our Nation's honor calls;
Be his the fame,- the glorious name who for our country falls.
March on! Our starry banner calls.
