Bel-gium was the first To re-ceive a might-y blow. Not a no-ble friends the French Drove the Ger-mans in a trench, And they warn-ing was sent to them, Help-less wo-men he cared halt-ed them on their way. Now three cheers for John-nie not, They were mur-dered on the spot, Lit-tle chil-dren de-formed for Bull, And the brave I-tal-ians true, Good old Ja-pan our true friends, life. Let us rise up with our might, Put this treach'rous race to too. All to-gether we will fight These world rule mad Kai-ser Flight, It's a U. S. A. world's Free - dom Strife. ites, They must hon - or our Red, White and Blue.

CHORUS

We're go - ing o - ver seas to whip the Kai - ser, The would be thief of Lib - er - ty. He'll find Sam-mie on the spot With a big de - fen - sive shot, To up - hold De - moc - ra - cy. His Nibbs is but a sham, He'll yet turn to Un - cle Sam, For mer - cy we can not give — Un - til all these aris - to - crats Have been cor - ner'd up like rats, And this world made safe for all to live.
