Lyric by © CIE484293
Nelson H. Pease.
NOV -7 1919

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

(Let Us Stand By The League Of Nations
And Prepare A World Peace To Stay.)

Music by Ray Hibbeler.

Piano

Marcia

Tho' the League of Nat-ions is storm tossed — And world
Tho' be-set with man-y hard problems — Theres one peace some dis-tance a-way — Brave captains and cool head-ed whom they'll ev-er find true — If he finds them loy-al-ly pil-ots — Will land them all safely some day — If fighting — All foes of world peace to sub-due — By

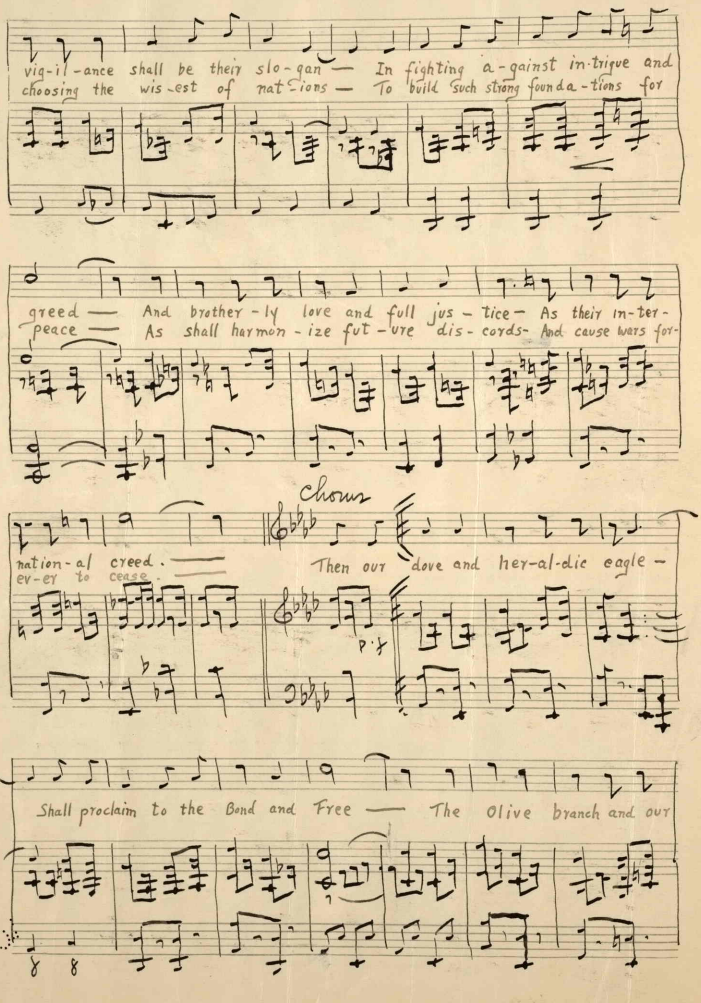
M1646
.M

Copyright 1919. By Nelson H. Pease.



vig-il-ance shall be their slo-gan — In fighting a-gainst in-trigue and choosing the wis-est of nat-ions — To build such strong founda-tions for greed — And brother-ly love and full jus-tice — As their in-terpeace — As shall harmon-ize fut-ure dis-cords — And cause wars for-Chorus nation-al creed. —
ev-er to cease.
Then our dove and her-al-dic eagle —
Shall proclaim to the Bond and Free — The Olive branch and our Old glor-y — As emblems of true li-ber-ty — Let us stand by the League of Nat-ions — No mat-ter what "Hyphenates" say — Heed the cries of down trodden mil-lions — And prepare a world peace to stay. Then our stay. — D.C.

473855

(Cut from MS from end to end)