words and Music By Louis Heiman St. Paul Minn.

It seems but a fort night, the world was all at peace,
The battles rag ing von der, our hearts are set a glow;

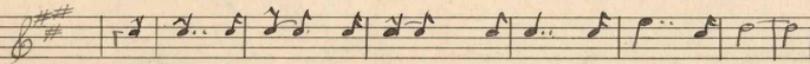

Love and kind ness every where, west and north and south and east,
Our flag must be pro tect ed, say "I'll be one to go"

Just then some thing hap pened that stired the Kais ers ire
Our love for home and free dom, not hat red for the foe;

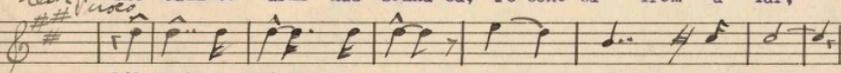

And in keep ing with his kul ture he set the earth a fire
For the cause of lib er ty, we will strike a might y blow.

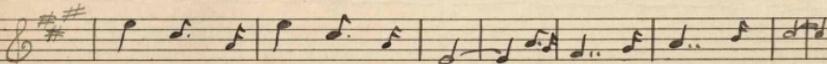

CHORUS

lean voice
The call to arms has sound ed, re echo ed from a far,

Lib er tys voice is cry ing, plead ing, patriots that are-

One one come all fight the foe, let's not be slack ers now

There's a vacant spot in our serv ice flag, for an oth er shin ing star.
