

Everybody's Song.

Fight On or Work On.

And

Win The Victory <sup>and</sup> Peace!

A-meri-ca was cho - sen, boys, in four-teen nine-ty - two,
 A-meri-ca is mold - ed, boys, from na - tions tribes and - clans,
 A-meri-ca is send - ing, boys, her sons-a- cross the sea, when Co - lum-bus setsail with his lit - tle ships and crew but Un - cle-Sam's melting pot makes loy - al cit - i - zens to strength-en-the trenches for the life-of lib - er - ty Yo ho! Yo ho! and he bat-tl'd with storms - on, the o - cean, as Yo ho! Yo ho! and we start-ed with pil - grims, brave land - ing, whose Yo ho! Yo ho! and with Al - lies brave sol-diers, are fight - ing, and o - ver the break-ers he bound - his faith was true in its de o - ver the top they will go - their val - same brave spir - it is o - ver the top they will go - their val - same brave spir - it is

vo - tion, and re - ward-ed, with - new world found Yo ho! Yo ho! o - ing, from east to the gold - en far west Yo ho! Yo ho!
 o - ing, to bat - tie and van-quisth the foe Yo ho! Yo ho!

Copyright-1918. by Antoinette St. Clair Jennings

And when the cross he plant-ed on the s a n d s by the sea, and when the cross was plant-ed on the s a n d s by the sea, God made

A-meri-ca de-fend-er of the world's-de-moc-ra-cy, and safe for you and me — Fight on we will fight on! Fight on — we will fight work Fight on Fight on we will fight work and win the vic - to - ry

NY No. 2