Arise! ye stalwart sons.

1. In peace and perfect freedom we have spun our webs of life-
 In search of truth and honor and with hearts not bent on strife.
 Of universal brotherhood
 by independence wrought,
 Our fathers' standards we uphold,
 who for our freedom fought.

Chorus.

2. Our aims were ne'er for conquest.
 We but warred in honor's name
 While "Huns", alas, have dreamed to rule with awful might and main.
 They crushed and pillaged Belgium thence to pierce the heart of France,
 With wanton tread of despot's heel,
 their "Kultur" to advance.

Chorus.

3. But when they struck the coward's blow that dyed the ocean red,
 The hearts of men were set ablaze
 o'er bleeding of our dead,
 So let us then avenge the crime against humanity
 And make the whole world safe for those who love Democracy.

Chorus. Arise! then, ye stalwart sons.
 Go forth to war once more.
 In righteous anger down the "Hun"
 and drive him to his door-Go clear the seas and purge the air-the earth sweep clean and free
 Of every beastly German who shall strike at Liberty.
