SEP -9 1918
©CLE430752

Kellogg, J. L.
The Kaiser will be insane.

The Kaiser Will Be Wiser

Words and Music by
J. L. Kellogg

Marcia

Moderato

Voice

Oh! Kaiser Wil-helm is his name. Would God he'd ne'er been born — He's Some day when Gott goes fishing, — He'll leave me on the throne — To plunged the world in cruel — war. Made countless mil-lions mourn, Said he: Those boast-ing Yan-kees Can prove my worth I'll rule the earth. All by my-self a - lone, — With Hin-den-burg and Luden - dorf and ner - er both-er me For 'me and Gott' rule ev - 'ry-thing that moves on land or sea. — my three Han-dred U. I'll rule the seas just as I please, And all of Eu - rope too. —

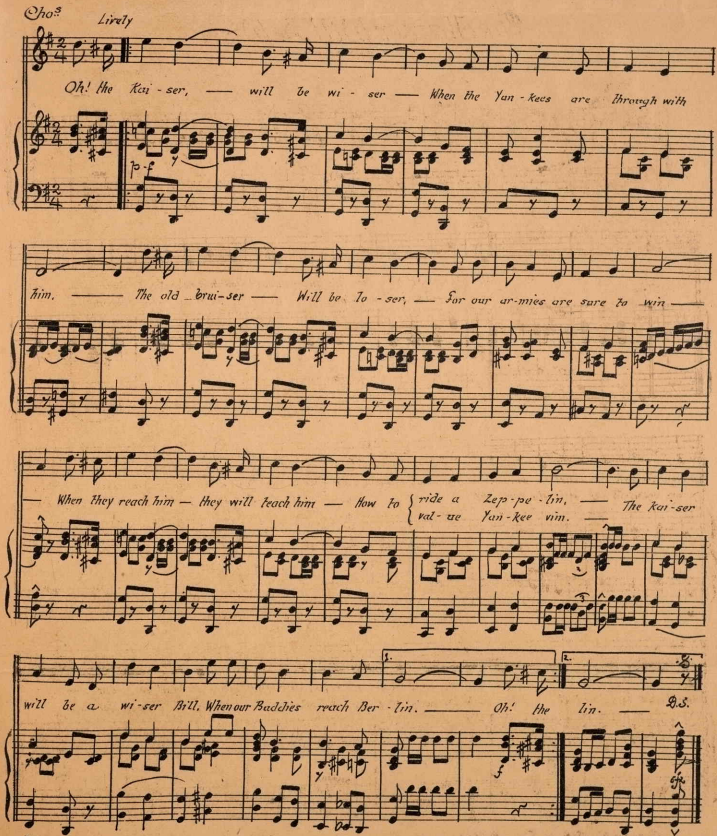
Copyright 1918 by J. L. Kellogg International copyright secured
Pub. by Columbia Pub Co. N. Y. C.



Chor.
Lively
Oh! the Kai-ser, — will be wi-ser — When the Yan-kees are through with him. — The old bru-ser — Will be lo-ser, — For our ar-mies are sure to win —
— When they reach him — they will teach him — how to { ride a Zep-pe-lin, — The Kai-ser / val-ue Yan-kee vim. — will be a wi-ser Brit, When our Buddies reach Ber-lin. — Oh! the lin. — D.S.