by ZETTA LEARMONTH

Hold! hold!
Hold! hold!
Hold! hold!

f (Bugle)

hold! Lis-ten to the tramp, tramp, tramp of tired and wea-ry feet, hold! What tre men dous love and power has kept the stars and stripes hold! O'er the top they rushed and plunged to bat-tle with the foe as our boys come march-ing home. They have fought and bled that de-un-furled and wav-ing high 'Tis the will of God 'gainst the to de-fend their coun-try's cause Not a sign of fear but moc-ra cy should reign, and now shout it loud, vic-to-ry is won.

 cru-el Prus-sian plan, and now shout it loud, peace on earth shall reign.
 he-roes to a man, and now shout a-loud a na-tion's praise.

Home-ward bound; what a sound, to the boys from the trench-es cold. Home-ward bound, Home-ward bound, hurrah! hur-rah! for our war-ri-ers bold. hur-rah! hur-rah! hur-rah!
