

We'll Make The Kaiser Kiser!!

Tempo di Marcia.

Words & music by William J. Leair

In north and south and east and west the boys have heard the call: They answered with a mighty will, they're ready one and all, To get their first equipment, To learn the soldier trade, To get their bodies strengthened, to learn how victory's made. And when they're trained and ready, 'til they fill with any foe, They'll pack their kit and beat it, and sing as a they go: Will make the Kaiser,

Chorus

Bill. he says, no spect on good old flag, Starting the battle cry of freedom. Will teach the warring cumprines not to make another flag, As we go marching on. Will show them back and all their

Look that for hu-man-i-ty, He'll fight the

The first system of music features a vocal line in G major with a treble clef and a piano accompaniment in G major with a bass clef. The piano part includes a '5' marking above the first measure. The lyrics are 'Look that for hu-man-i-ty, He'll fight the'.

fight that wins the day, He'll fight on land and sea.

The second system continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The piano part includes a '5' marking above the first measure. The lyrics are 'fight that wins the day, He'll fight on land and sea.'

And when we get to Berlin and smash in the palace door, He'll make the Kaiser

The third system continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The piano part includes a '5' marking above the first measure. The lyrics are 'And when we get to Berlin and smash in the palace door, He'll make the Kaiser'.

min-ter, he's never been before. He'll get them!! He'll get them!! He'll

The fourth system concludes the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The piano part includes a '5' marking above the first measure. The lyrics are 'min-ter, he's never been before. He'll get them!! He'll get them!! He'll'.

make the Kaiser wien!! He'll make the Kaiser wien!! Will leave our

The first system of the handwritten musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is a vocal line in G major, with lyrics written below it: "make the Kaiser wien!! He'll make the Kaiser wien!! Will leave our". The middle and bottom staves form a piano accompaniment, with the middle staff in treble clef and the bottom staff in bass clef. The music is in 2/4 time and features a mix of eighth and quarter notes.

homes and our own native shores, To make the Kaiser wien the best ever been be-fore!!

The second system continues the musical score with three staves. The vocal line (top staff) has the lyrics: "homes and our own native shores, To make the Kaiser wien the best". The piano accompaniment (middle and bottom staves) continues with similar rhythmic patterns and chord structures.

The third system concludes the musical score with three staves. The vocal line (top staff) has the lyrics: "ever been be-fore!!". The piano accompaniment (middle and bottom staves) ends with a final chord and a double bar line.

The fourth system consists of three empty musical staves, indicating that the page ends before the music continues.

APR 24 1918

We'll Make the Kaiser Wiser.

Words and music by William G. Lewi.

Arrangement by Carl Krause.

In north and south and east and west the boys have heard the call;
They've answered with a mighty will, they're ready one and all,
To get their first equipment, to learn the soldier trade,
To get their bodies strengthened, to learn how vict'ry's made.
And when they're trained and ready, fit to fight with any foe,
They'll pack their kits and beat it:--and sing as on they go;---

Chorus:

We'll make the kaiser, Bill's his name, respect our good old flag,

Shouting the battle cry of freedom:

We'll teach the warring crown prince not to make another brag,

As we go marching on.

We'll show them both and all their host that for humanity

We'll fight the fight that wins the day; we'll fight on land and sea.

And when we get to Berlin and smash in the palace door,

We'll make the kaiser wiser than he's ever been before.

We'll get there!! We'll get there!!

We'll make the kaiser wiser!!

We'll make the kaiser wiser!!

We'll leave our homes and our own native shore,

To make the kaiser wiser than he's ever been before.

Verse 2.

They've stood before the Local Board and told them all they knew;
Then to the Doctor's room they went--a manly, naked crew:
He made them jump and scamper, and hop and skip around,
Rejected all the bad ones and rounded up the sound
And to them said, "Accepted: now, boys, it's up to you",
And as one man they answered:--"Well, this is what we'll do"--

Verse 3.

Then to the cantonments they went, each one to do his best;
The work was hard, the life was new, and they had little rest.
But after just a little they fell right into line,
Forgot the work in doing and all are feeling fine.
And while they work they're waiting, anxious for the trip across,
To teach the boches manners, to tell them who is BOSS:--

Another Chorus:

We'll make the kaiser wiser and we'll smash the Wacht am Rhein,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom.

We'll spank the little crown prince behind the german line,
As we go marching on.

Old Hindenberg, with all his lines, we'll put him on the run,
And if there're any germans left, with them we'll have some fun.
And when we get to Berlin etc. etc. (Same as other chorus.)