©CLE125333 K
JUN -7 1918

THE SAILOR LAD IS THE LAD FOR ME

DEDICATED TO OUR SAILOR BOYS

WORDS BY REBECCA R DAVIDSON

MUSIC BY EADELE LORD

Introduction.

fz Tempo di marcia moderato.

ped.

The sail-or lad is the lad for me the lad for me; the
The sail-or lad is brave and true is brave and true; the He climbs the mast so tall and high so tall and high; And mf f Oh, rol-lick-ing, frol-lick-ing lad of the sea the lad of the sea; When the sails o'er the smooth and the stormy sea and the storm — y sea And his and his shows what ev-er-y one should do ev-er-y one should do By work — ing in watch — es as it points to the sky as it points to the sky the sig — nals war is o-ver and the world is free and the world is free The ships of all aim is lib — er-ty, lib — er-ty of all the sea He har — mo-ny with the crew, the is sure of vic-to-ries great and new He when the en-e-my's nigh And saves from dan-ger that's pass-ing by. Oh, na — tions with rai-ces clear Will greet each oth — er from far and near And our

M1646
.L

Nr. 3.—Carl Fischer, New York.

knows that no man owns the sea; God gave it a-like to all and free. And no one has a works a-like in sun-shine and rain, His hon-est ef-forts he knows will gain. And this is his one and lib-er-ty-lov-ing sail-or lad, We love to see thee it makes us glad. We re-joice to know that friends shall take up the strain and cheer With-out a thought of trou-ble or fear. We want to thank thee and right to be Mas-ter of the won-der-ful sea.
only re-frain, And he sings it o-ver and o-ver a-gain } Lib-er-ty, sweet Lib-er-ty!
thou hast had the rest in sav-ing us from one that is mad.
ev-er-y land Will be proud of his patri-ot sail-or lad. Lib-er-ty, sweet Lib-er-ty!
Oh, the sail-or lad is the lad for me Oh, he's the lad for me He works and sings his cheer-ful lay from dawn till close of day; When the war is won and the world is free! (after the war) [Now the] sail-er the bound-ing main; Let us give three cheers for the sail-or lad Who'll [Who] help the world's free-dom to gain.

[helped]
Lib-er-ty, sweet Lib-er-ty!
Finale.
Ped.
*