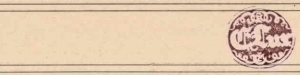
JUL -1 1918 ©CLE428457



"The Banner we all love!"

Words by Conrad Strassburger.

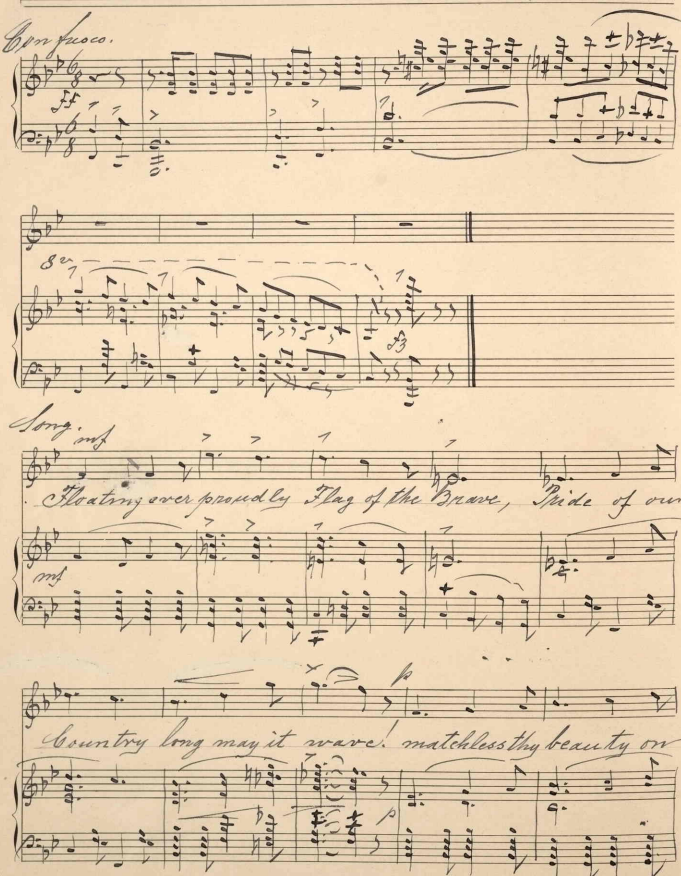
Music by Edward Pix.

Manuscript.

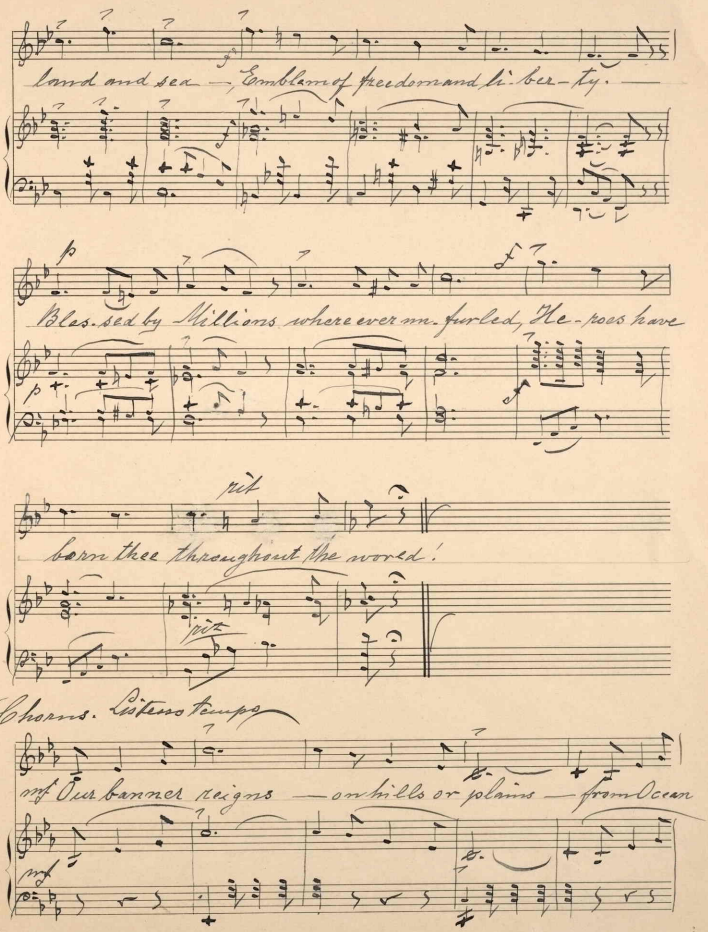
M1646
.L

The Banner we all love.

Words by Conrad Strassburger. / Music by Edward Lux.



B. C
No. 31



land and sea — Emblem of freedom and li-ber-ty. — Bless-ed by Millions where ever un-furled, He-roes have born thee throughout the world!
rit
Chorus. Listesso tempo of Our banner reigns — on hills or plains — from Ocean sides this country wide — in every clime — it will reign sublime — it stands for right, and not for might, it stands for

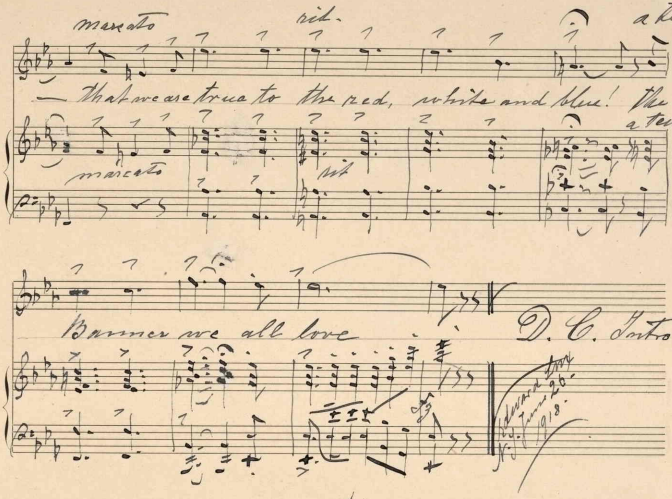
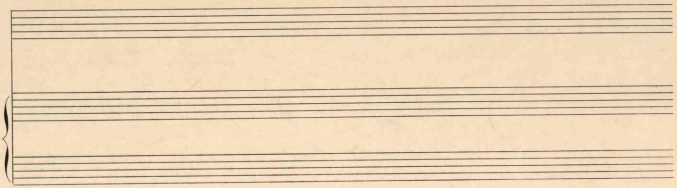
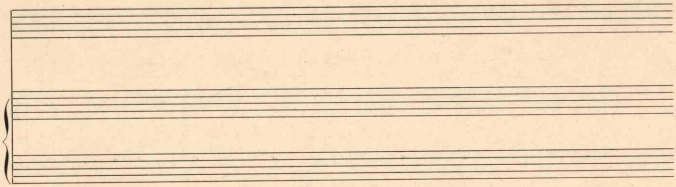
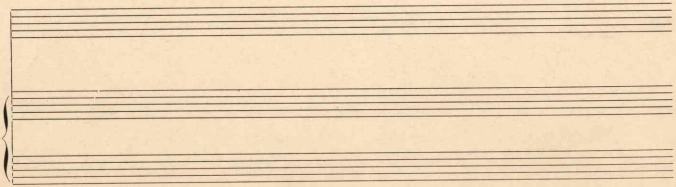
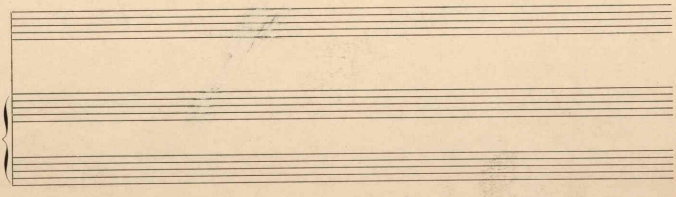
rit. and a tempo right and not for might, let no one blight — a star or stripe — let it be known on every throne —



D. C. ♩ Verse.








Symbol of Right, thro' the years passing o'er,
Float ever proudly, from shore to shore.
Country of Justice, country of Law,
Rise men of old thy coming fore-saw!
Banner of promise hailed from a-far
All hail "Old Glory"! Bless every star.