A SONG FOR THE HOUR

Loyalty is the Word

WE WILL STAND BY PRESIDENT
WILSON

Words by
PETER DE LINDE

Music by MARY HOTCHKISS-LOVE
and C. E. F. WEYSE

God save our Woodrow Wilson that dear father
Of our beloved country at this day,
Let every man around our banner gather,
Be loyal, brave and willing to obey.
Our boys, our wheat, our meat, our gold and silver,
Our strength, our life and every thing we have,
We shall to Wilson every thing deliver
And help him now our liberty to save.

CHORUS

We shall send our men and son's,
To the battle with their guns,
We shall buy the liberty bonds,
And provide all needed funds,
For to fight the Kaiser host,
Crush his power at any cost,
And gain a complete victory
And universal liberty.

Autocracy that serpent now is coiling
Around all freedom both on sea and land,
That wicked German power now is spoiling
And will enslave our people if it can,
Wake up dear land, our country is in danger,
Let all our strength be wheeled into line
To fight our foe that most unwelcome stranger
The German host from eastward of the Rhine.

To win this war we have to pull together,
Be loyal, brave, obey our government,
Be honest, true and faithful in all matter
Like Wilson our beloved President.
With lasting peace our efforts shall be crowned,
With liberty and joy on every hand,
Autocracy forever shall be drowned,
By democratic rule on sea and land.
