We'll End this War Down by the River

AFS 1005 A1

Oh, since the day that I was born, The foe made me shiver. And often made me so forlorn, Down by the riverside.

We'll end this war, down by the river, We'll end this war, down by the riverside!

The devil, long, he had me fast, Down by the river. The Lord freed me as there, He past,
Down by the riverside.

He then said "Come and follow me, And trust me ever. Light and darkness can't agree, So, in me ever bide."

We'll end this war, down by the river, We'll end this war, down by the riverside!

This old world is a battle field, You need not fear or quiver. Victories, on our side I've found, Down by the riverside.

Our captain, he is brave and strong, Will leave us never. Oft we sing the victor's song,
Down by the riverside.

We'll end this war, down by the river, We'll end this war, down by the riverside!

My old, black heart has been washed white, So keep those golden gates wide open. And all my darkness turned to light, So keep those gates ajar.

I've glory here, 'tis great indeed, So keep those golden gates wide open. For all the world it supercedes, So keep those gates ajar.

Keep those golden gates wide open, Keep those gates ajar. For I'm going to a place where I'll see my Saviors'face,When I ride up in the Resurrection Car.

Others may do just as they will, But keep those golden gates wide open. For I am climbing Zion's Hill, So keep those gates ajar.

There I shall see my savior friend, So keep those golden gates wide open. With Him eternity I'll spend, So keep those gates ajar.

The way is plain, the Bible's true, So keep those golden gates wide open. Obey the rules and you'll get thru, So keep those gates ajar.

Keep those golden gates wide open, Keep those gates ajar. For I'm going to a place where I'll see my Saviors' face, When I ride up in the Resurrection Car.

You may have the world with all its show, So keep those golden gates wide open. To the royal banquet I must go, So keep those gates ajar.

Keep those golden gates wide open, Keep those gates ajar. For I'm going to a place where I'll see my Saviors' face, When I ride up in the Resurrection Car.
