

Keep the Baby Still / Over in the Promised Land / Oh, Glory Hallelujah

Keep the Baby Still

AFS 1006 B1

One day I rent a room, so I could sleep, sleep, sleep, But when I went to bed, a baby he would squeak. It was an awful night, I cried out ??? and shrill, "Say, don't you know I rent this room, so keep that baby still."

They laughed, they yelled, and cried, I said, "I know what do, For this is such I cannot stand, I make the noises too." But when I was all done, I cried ??? awful shrill, A dozen more of just such kids, to keep that baby still.

Next night I thought I'd sleep, kept quiet like a mouse, But son I find there would be none, they have got dog in house. The ??? he did groan, they rest was sang and shrill, But now and then they'd yell at me, "Keep that baby still."

"Keep that baby still; keep that baby still, Stop that noise, some of you boys, and keep that baby still."

I left and went away, other room just the same, Then off of town, I go to quick, I find an other home. But then next to my room, the barnyard music shrill, The overhead had one drum, to keep that baby still.

The next night was some drive, the carpenter was come, He saw he played some music, quick till out ??? come. Then go he go, "moo, moo," the rest cried out so shrill, The carpenter hit hammer with the nail to keep that baby still.

"Keep that baby still; keep that baby still, Stop that noise, some of the boys, and keep that baby still."

Over in the Promised Land

AFS 1006 B2

God is calling his children home. God is calling his children home. God is calling his children home. To be with him in this promised land.

By and by we'll go and see him. By and by we'll go and see him. By and by we'll go and see him. Way over in the promised land.

Where, oh where is good old Daniel? Where, oh where is good old Daniel? Where, oh where is good old Daniel? Way over in the promised land.

Where, oh where is good old grandpa? Where, oh where is good old grandpa? Where, oh where is good old grandpa? Way over in the promised land.

Where, oh where is good old grandma? Where, oh where is good old grandma? Where, oh where is good old grandma? Way over in the promised land.

Oh, Glory Hallelujah

AFS 1006 B3

I am headed for that Heavenly Land, Oh, glory Hallelujah! And find while en route all are grand, Oh, glory Hallelujah!

Sing on, pray on, we're gaining ground, Oh, glory Hallelujah! The power of the Lord is coming down, Oh, glory Hallelujah!

The devil is a liar and a conjurer too, Oh, glory Hallelujah! And if you don't mind, he'd sure get you, Oh, glory Hallelujah!

Oh, the Lord won't hear your high toned prayer, Oh, [glory?]
