I. Charles Gott, b. about 1600 in Weymouth, Dorchester, England, was married to Thankful (Gift) Palmer in 1625 at St. Andrews, the Great, Cambridge, Cambridgeshire, England. On June 28, 1628, they sailed on the ship "Abigail" with John Endicott, later Governor of the Colony of Massachusetts Bay, and landed at Salem, Mass. Two years later he was voted a Freeman. In 1635 he was made a Deacon of the Church; was a member of the Council and held other civic offices. He died on January 15, 1667.

Charles and Gift Gott had three children: Deborah, bpt. December 12, 1636, Charles, bpt. April 16, 1639, and Daniel, bpt. April 25, 1646. The Connecticut, the New York and the Ohio Gotts are descendants of the younger son, Daniel, while the Cape Ann and the Maine Gotts are, for the most part, descendants of the son, Charles.

This family outline represents twelve generations in the United States, seven in Ohio.
As far as known, all the Gotts in the United States are descendants of Charles Gott (2) who came from England. Samuel Gott of London was a member of the British Parliament. He was buried December 8, 1671. His son Peter was a Knight of the Shire for the County of Sussex; d. 1712.
