Administrative Information

Provenance

The papers of John H. Wheeler, historian, diplomat, and public official, were given to the Library of Congress by Woodbury Wheeler in 1900. An addition was purchased in 1933. Series II of the collection consisting of additional scrapbooks was transferred to the papers from the general collections of the Library in 1973.

Processing History

The Wheeler Papers were housed and listed prior to 1970. The finding aid was revised in 2001 and again in 2010. Containers 10-13 and 20-22 were filmed in 1975. Containers 1-4 were reproduced in a separate microfilm edition in 1976. The finding aid was revised in 2011.

Copyright Status

The status of copyright in the unpublished writings of John H. Wheeler Papers is governed by the Copyright Law of the United States (Title 17, U.S.C.).

Scope and Content Note

The papers of John Hill Wheeler (1806-1882) span the years 1825-1882, with the bulk of the material from 1852 to 1882. The collection is organized into two series. Series I consists of diaries; correspondence; manuscripts of the U.S. Treasury Department Yearbook, 1868, compiled by Wheeler; writings relating to Nicaragua and Wheeler's service in that country; scrapbooks with an index; and other papers pertaining primarily to North Carolina history, social activities in Washington, D.C., politics, statistics, and the William Walker filibuster in Central America. Series II contains additional scrapbooks that were transferred to the papers from the general collections of the Library after the receipt of the original material in the Manuscript Division. The collection is arranged by type of material within the two series.

Arrangement of the Papers

This collection is arranged in two series:
