Scope and Content Note

The Carter G. Woodson Collection of Negro Papers and Related Documents was assembled by Woodson as an outgrowth of his interest in collecting and preserving primary sources on African-American history during his tenure as executive director of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History and as editor of the Association's principal organ, the Journal of Negro History. The collection includes papers of Whitefield McKinlay, Washington, D.C., realtor and collector of the Port of Washington; Benjamin Tucker Tanner, Bishop of the African Methodist Episcopal Church; and John T. Clark, officer of the Pittsburgh Urban League; as well as some early papers of Carter G. Woodson. The collection is dated 1803-1936, but the bulk of the material falls in the period 1830-1927. The papers consist principally of correspondence on African-American history, the Journal of Negro History, appointment of blacks to federal office, race relations, racial discrimination, employment opportunities, state and national politics, and business matters. Addresses, diaries, clippings, and nineteenth-century legal documents complete the collection.

In the Whitefield McKinlay and Carter G. Woodson papers, correspondents who generated a large number of letters are represented by separate folders. Persons represented by correspondence or other papers include John E. Bruce, George Washington Carver, William D. Crum, Frederick Douglass, Christian A. Fleetwood, T. Thomas Fortune, Richard Theodore Greener, Henry Cabot Lodge, John R. Lynch, Medill McCormick, Hiram Rhoades Revels, Theodore Roosevelt, Julius Rosenwald, Emmett J. Scott, Robert Smalls, Frederick Starr, Melville E. Stone, Booker T. Washington, and Charles Young.

Organization of the Papers

The collection is arranged in seven series:

- Whitefield McKinlay Papers, 1848-1913
- Carter G. Woodson Papers, 1916-1927, n.d.
- Benjamin Tucker Tanner Papers, 1827-1972.
- John T. Clark Papers, 1921-1923, n.d.
- Additional Manuscripts, 1807-1935, n.d.
- Miscellany, 1803-1936, n.d.
- Oversize, 1860-1931
