

Andrew Jackson to John Coffee, September 26, 1813, from Correspondence of Andrew Jackson. Edited by John Spencer Bassett.

TO JOHN COFFEE.

Confidential

Nashville, September 26, 1813

Sir: Inclosed you will receive marching orders you will understand that these are to be Shewn to your officers, but you are not to proceed from Huntsville untill you receive further orders from me. When you reach Huntsville you will endeavour, by some confidential individual to find out where the body of the creeks are collected, and as soon as recd. communicate the same to me. Colo. Perkins will aid you in obtaining this information. Should I receive any information by next mail from Mobile I will communicate it by express. On the 6th. of next month I shall be at Fayettevills, where I shall expect to hear from you. I am verry respectfully yrs. affectionately