

---

James Monroe to Thomas Jefferson, November 6, 1800, from Thomas Jefferson and James Monroe Correspondence, Transcribed and Edited by Gerard W. Gawalt, Manuscript Division, Library of Congress

-----

James Monroe to Thomas Jefferson

Richmond Novr. 6. 1800

Dear Sir

Mr. Ervin will present you this, who is already known to you under the honorable testimonial of Saml. Adams. He wishes to visit Mr. Madison on his return to this place, to whom it may be of use for you to give him a line of introduction. The republican ticket has had complete success in this quarter. In Prince George he vote for it was 197. While it was only 9 for the opposit one. In this city it had a majority, and of the 5 or six counties we have heard from the majority was in the proposition of at least 5 for 1 in each, or rather the most unfavorable one. I send you the letters of Mr. Skipwith and Fenwick wh. support the statment in the paper I gave Mr. R. If they will be of any use retain them; if not inclose them to Mr. Madison to be returned to me, by Mr. Ervin. Sincerely I am yr. friend and servantJas. Monroe

RC (Jefferson Papers, Library of Congress).