AHADAH

Chap. Ist

Unremitting endur'd the cold hammer.

1. Fuzon, on a chariot iron-wing'd
On spiked flames rose; his hot visage
Flamed furious! sparkles his hair & beard
Shot down his wide bosom and shoulders
On clouds of smoke robes his chariot
And his right hand burns red in its cloud.

Moulding into a vast globe, his wrath
As the thunder-stone is moulded
Son of Uriens silent burnings

2. Shall we worship this Demon of smoke.
Said Fuzon, this abstract nor entity
Thus cloudy God seated on waters
Now seen, now obscure, King of sorrow?

3. So he spoke in a fiery flame,
On Urien frowning indignant.
The Globe of wrath shaking on high
Roaring with fury, he threw
The howling Globe: burning it flew
Lengthning into a hungry beam. Swiftly

4. Oppos'd to the exulting flame
The broad Disk of Urien upheav'd
Across the Void many a mile.

5. It was forg'd in mills where the winter
Beats incessant; ten winters the disk

6. But the strong arm that sent it remov'd
The sounding beam, laughing it tore through
That beaten mæl, keeping its direction
The cold loins of Urien dividing.

7. Dire shriek'd his invisible Lust
Deep groan'd Urien! stretching his awful hand
Arania (so name his parted soul)
He seiz'd on his mountains of Jealousy.
He groan'd anguish'd & called her Son,
Kissing her and weeping over her:
Then led her in darkness in silence:
Jealous tho' she was invisible.

8. She fell down a faint shadow wandring
In chaos and circling dark Urien.
As the moon anguish'd circles the earth:
Hopeless! abhorr'd! a death-shadow.
Unseen, unbodied, unknown,
The mother of Pestilence.

9. But the fiery beam of Fuzon
Was a pillar of fire to Egypt
Five hundred years wandering on earth
Till Los seized it and beat in a mæl
With the body of the sun.

Chap. II:

1. But the forehead of Urizen gathering
And his eyes pale with anguish, his lips
Blue & changing, in tears and bitter
Gontrition he prepar'd his Bow.

2. Form'd of Ribs: that in his dark solitude
When obscure in his forests fell monsters
Arose. For his dire Contemplations
Rush'd down like floods from his mountains
In torrents of mud settling thick
With Eggs of unnatural production
Forthwith hatching: some howld on his hills
Some in vales; some alft flew in air

3. Of these: an enormous dread Serpent
Scaled and poisonous horned.
Approach'd Urizen even to his knees
As he sat on his dark rooted Oak.

4. With his horns he push'd furious.
Great the conflict & great the jealousy
In cold poisons: but Urizen smote him

5. First he poison'd the rocks with his blood
Then polished his ribs, and his sinews
Dried, laid them apart till winter;
Then a Bow black prepar'd, on this Bow
A poisoned rock plac'd in silence:
He utter'd these words to the Bow.

6. O Bow of the clouds of secracy:
O nerve of that lust form'd monster.
Send this rock swift, invisible thro'
The black clouds, on the bosom of Fuzon

7. So saying, In torment of his wounds,
He bent the enormous ribs slowly:
A circle of darkness: then fix'd
The sinner in its rest: then the Rock
Poisonous source, plac'd with art, listing difficult
Its weighty bulk: silent the rock lay.

8. While Fuzon his tygers unloosing

Thought Urizen slain by his wrath.
I am God, said he, eldest of things!

9. Sudden sing the rock, swift & invisible
On Fuzon flew, enter'd his bosom:
His beautiful visage, his tresses,
That gave light to the mornings of heaven
Were smitten with darknes, deformed
And outstretch'd on the edge of the forest

10. But the rock fell upon the Earth.
Mount Sinai, in Arabia.

Chap. III:

1. The Globe shook; and Urizen sexted
On black clouds his sore wound anointed
The ointment flow'd down on the void
Mix'd with blood: here the snake gets her poison

2. With difficulty & great pain, Urizen
Lifted on high the dead corse:
On his shoulders he bore it to where
A Tree hung over the Immensity

3. For when Urizen shrunk away
From Eternals, he sat on a rock
Barren, a rock which himself
From redounding fancies had petrified
Many tears fell on the rock,
Many sparks of vegetation:
Soon shot the pained root
Of Mystery under his heel:
It grew a thick tree; he wrote
In silence his book of iron:
Till the horrid plant bending its boughs
Grew to roots when it felt the earth
And again sprung to many a tree.

4. Amaz'd started Urizen, when
He beheld himself compass'd round
And high roof'd over with trees
He arose but the stems stood so thick
He with difficulty and great pain
Brought his Books: all but the Book

Of iron, from the dismal shade
5. The Tree still grows over the Void
Enrooting itself all around
An endless labyrinth of woe!

6. The curse of his first begetting.
On the accursed Tree of Mystery:
On the topmost stem of this Tree
Urizen nauld Fuzon's curse.

Chap: IV.

1. Farth flew the arrows of pestilence
Round the pale living Gorse on the tree

2. For in Urizen's slumbers of abstraction
In the infinite ages of Eternity:
When his Nerves of Joy melted & flow'd
A white Lake oft the dark blue air
In perturbed pain and dismal torment.
Now stretching out, now swift conglobing.

3. Effluvia vapord above
In noxious clouds; these hover'd thick
Over the disorganized Immortal,
Till pebric pain scowld o'er the Lakes
As the bones of man, solid & dark

4. The clouds of disease hover'd wide
Around the Immortal in torment
Perching around the hurling bones
Disease on disease, shape on shape.
Winged screaming in blood, & torment.

5. The Eternal Prophet beat on his anvils
Enraged in the desolate darkness
He forged nets of iron around
And Los threw them around the bones

6. The shapes screaming flutter'd vain
Some combind into muscles & glands
Some organs for craving and lust
Most remained on the tormented void.
Urizen's army of horrors.

7. Round the pale living Gorse on the Tree
Forty years flew the arrows of pestilence
8. Wailing and terror and woe
Ran thro' all his dismal world:
Forty years all his sons & daughters
Felt their skulls harder: then Asia
Awse in the pendulous deep.

9. They reptilize upon the Earth.

10. Fuzon groand on the Tree.

Chap: V

1. The lamenting voice of Ahania
Weeping upon the void.
And round the Tree of Fuzon:
Distant in solitary night
Her voice was heard, but no form
Had she, but her tears from clouds
Eternal fell round the Tree.

2. And the voice cried: Ah Urizen! Love!
Flower of morning! I weep on the verge
Of Non-entity; how wide the Abyss
Between Ahania and thee!

3. I lie on the verge of the deep.
I see thy dark clouds ascend,
I see thy black forests and floods.
A horrible waste to my eyes!

4. Weeping I walk over rocks
Over dens & thro' valleys of death
Why didst thou despise Ahania
To cast me from thy bright presence
Into the World of Lameness?

5. I cannot touch his hand:
Nor weep on his knees, nor hear
His voice & bow, nor see his eyes
And joy, nor hear his footsteps, and
My heart leap at the lovely sound:
I cannot kiss the place
Whereon his bright feet have trod.

But I wander on the rocks
With hard necessity.

6. Where is my golden palace
Where my, ivory bed
Where the joy of my morning hour
Where the sons of eternity, singing

7. To awake bright Urien my king:
To arise to the mountain sport,
To the hills of eternal valleys:

8. To awake my king in the morn:
To embrace Ahania's joy
On the breath of his open bosom:
From my soft cloud of dew to fall
In showers of life on his harvests

9. When he gave my happy soul
To the sons of eternal joy:
When he took the daughters of life
Into my chambers of love:

10. When I found babes of bliss on my beds
And bosoms of milk in my chambers
Filled with eternal seed
O: eternal births' sung round Ahania
In interchange sweet of their joys.

11. Swell'd with ripeness & fat with fatness
Bursting on winds my odors
My ripe figs and rich pomegranates

In infant joy at thy feet
O Urien sported and sang,

12. Then thou with thy lap full of seed
With thy hand full of generous fire
Walked forth from the clouds of morning
On the virgin's of sprung joy.
On the human soul to cast
The seed of eternal science.

13. The sweat poured down thy temples
To Ahania returned in evening
The moisture awoke to birth
My mothers-joys, sleeping in bliss.

14. But now alone over rocks, mountains
Gust out from thy lovely bosom:
Grief jealousy, selfish fear,
Self-destroying: how can delight
Renew in these chains of darkness
Where bones of beasts are strown
On the bleak and snowy mountains
Where bones from the birth are buried
Before they see the light.

FINIS.
