IN Chancery, December 29, 1800.
 WALTER W. HARKWOOD, an indentured Prince George county, makes application as a reader, by petition to the Chancellor in writing, praying the benefit of an act, or the relief of said indentured apprentice. There is returned to this petition a Schedule of his property, and a list of his Creditors on Oath, as by the said act is required. It is ordered that he apply to the Chancellor in the chancery office, on the first day of April next, for the purpose of taking the Oath, and that he be required in presence of his creditors, and that by causing a copy of this order, to be published once in each of three successive weeks before the end of January next, in some newspaper of the City of Washington, he give notice to his creditors to attend on the first Friday day of April, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to judge with the Chancellor, within fifty days from the time of the said publication (if they shall think fit) their dissent to his being admitted to the benefit of the said act.
 TELL
 SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD, reg. C. C. Jan. 7, 1801. 10w3

IN Chancery, January 31, 1801.
 ON Application to the Chancellor by petition in writing of JOHN H. HARBORNE, an indentured Charles county, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry indentured debtors' passed at the last session of the General Assembly, and a Schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, so far as he can ascertain, the Chancellor is ordered to give a public notice to the said John Harborne, to be at the time, a citizen of the United States, and of this State, and to have been such at the time of passing the said act, and the said John Harborne, at the time of presenting his petition, having produced to the Chancellor, the debts in writing of a number of his creditors as have due to them, the amount of two thirds of the debts due by him at the time of passing the said act, according to the said act, it is therefore adjudged and ordered that the said John Harborne, by causing a copy of this order to be published once in each of three successive weeks, in some newspaper of the Washington Newspapers, before the end of the present month of January next, to give notice to the said John Harborne, to be at the time, a citizen of the United States, and of this State, and to have been such at the time of passing the said act, and the said John Harborne, at the time of presenting his petition, having produced to the Chancellor, the debts in writing of a number of his creditors as have due to them, the amount of two thirds of the debts due by him at the time of passing the said act, according to the said act, it is therefore adjudged and ordered that the said John Harborne, by causing a copy of this order to be published once in each of three successive weeks, in some newspaper of the Washington Newspapers, before the end of the present month of January next, to give notice to the said John Harborne, to be at the time, a citizen of the United States, and of this State, and to have been such at the time of passing the said act, and the said John Harborne, at the time of presenting his petition, having produced to the Chancellor, the debts in writing of a number of his creditors as have due to them, the amount of two thirds of the debts due by him at the time of passing the said act, according to the said act, it is therefore adjudged and ordered that the said John Harborne, by causing a copy of this order to be published once in each of three successive weeks, in some newspaper of the Washington Newspapers, before the end of the present month of January next, to give notice to the said John Harborne, to be at the time, a citizen of the United States, and of this State, and to have been such at the time
