

A PARADISE FOR BIRDS FROM HENRY FORD THEIR FRIEND

ROAD THROUGH THE BIRD PARADISE
Scene in the Beautiful Three-Thousand Acre Tract on the Detroit River Bought by Henry Ford, of Detroit, as a Place of Refuge for Birds of All Kinds

BIRD "LOG CABIN"
NAILED TO A TREE

Woodpeckers Live in the Tree, Entrance Being Beneath the House. Wrens Live in the House

APARTMENT HOUSE FOR PURPLE MARTINS
A Smaller House Was First Built for Them, But They Looked It Over and Wouldn't Move In.

Two Charming Brides-To-Be

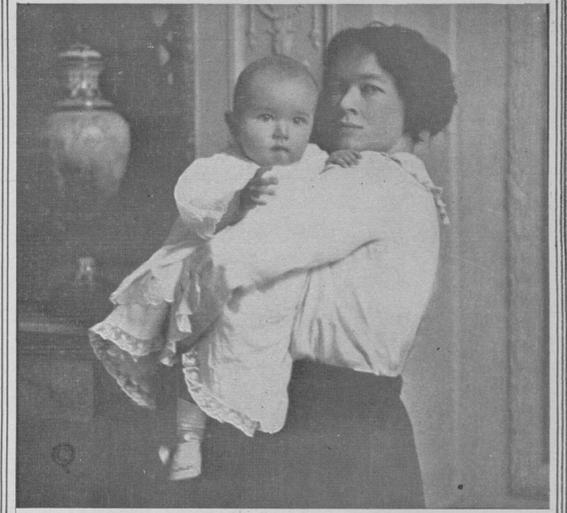

MISS EMILY ROGERS
Sister of Henry Pendleton Rogers
(Photo by The Misses Selby.)

MISS NADINE MELBOURNE
Niece of Mrs. E. Berry Wall.
(Photos by Marceau.)

New Baby Faces on Fifth Avenue

MRS. OLIVER BRETT
Formerly Miss Antoinette Heckscher, and Baby
(Photo Copyright by Marceau.)

MRS. JOEL NOTT ALLEN AND LITTLE MISS MARGARET COOPER ALLEN
(Photo by Jessie Tarbox Beals, Inc.)