A "Set" May Easily Make a Boy—a Man

Bridging the Years

The difference between the working models of a bridge, aeroplane or Ferris wheel that any boy can make of Meccano, and a real railroad bridge or machine is one of degree only.

MECCANO

To the boy's imagination it is the same locomotive thundering across the draw, or the same wheel revolving with its merry-makers. In a few years he may be building gigantic steel structures by the same principles he learns to-day in his play with Meccano.

Get That Boy of Yours a Set of Meccano

It's the most amusing and fascinating toy in the world. Its girders, bolts and wheels of brass and nicked steel, to be seen at the stores named below, can be modeled into a hundred different playthings by any boy. Always new, always delightful. You'll enjoy it, too. Drop in and see the book of designs. Sets from $1 up. Or write to us for the book.
